

Halo House Foundation Donor Privacy Policy

Halo House Foundation is committed to respecting the privacy of its donors.

Halo House Foundation will collect and maintain the following types of donor information:

- Contact information including name/organization, address, phone number and email address
- Donation information including donation amounts, donation dates, method of payment and campaigns
- Donor requests and comments
- Copies of donor correspondence relevant to donations

Halo House Foundation uses donor/donation data to maintain records of donations, send gift acknowledgments, mail year-end tax statements if requested and for internal marketing purposes. Halo House Foundation will add a donor to its mailing list unless donor requests otherwise. Halo House Foundation will not share donation with third parties.

Individual donors, corporate sponsors and foundations may be recognized on the Halo House Foundation website, in the e-newsletter or on social media unless donor requests otherwise.

Donor information collected online is information required to process credit and debit card transactions. Halo House Foundation uses a reputable secure third-party merchant service organization to process the payments for and provide reports to Halo House Foundation and does not see or have access to donor's credit card numbers, expiration dates or security codes.

Donor payment information received by mail, fax or in person could include donor name, physical and email addresses, phone number, credit card number, expiration date and security code, all provided by the donor. This information is used to process payments, acknowledge contributions and contact donors. Credit card data is not retained once processed.

Halo House Foundation will not trade, share, or sell a donor's personal information with anyone else, nor send donor mailings on behalf of other organizations.
